4 FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

Mr T. R. Wilson, pursuant to notice, moved—That this House:

- (1) recognises the positive effect of the Government's measures to ensure that it lives within its means, in particular by:
 - (a) legislating tough measures against multinational tax avoidance;
 - (b) delivering disciplined financial management, including through a tax-to-GDP cap of 23.9 per cent and the lowest rate of spending growth of any government in more than 50 years; and

- (c) maintaining the integrity of the welfare system so that support goes to those who need it most; and
- (2) notes with deep concern that the Opposition:
 - (a) opposed our multinational anti-avoidance legislation in Parliament;
 - (b) refuses to commit to spending restraint or a tax cap so that the economy is not burdened with higher taxes; and
 - (c) has no plan to support Australians to get off welfare and into work.

Debate ensued.

Debate adjourned, and the resumption of the debate made an order of the day for the next sitting.

5 VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

The order of the day having been read for the resumption of the debate on the motion of Ms Husar—That this House:

- (1) notes that the rape and murder of Eurydice Dixon is the 30th instance of a woman being killed by men's violence against women in 2018;
- (2) recognises the importance of providing strong leadership in changing men's behaviour towards women to prevent such behaviour by men;
- (3) understands that:
 - (a) at least one woman a week in Australia is killed at the hands of a man, usually a current or former partner;
 - (b) one in three Australian women has experienced physical violence since the age of 15; and
 - (c) one in five women has experienced sexual violence;
- (4) acknowledges the social and economic impact that violence against women has on our communities; and
- (5) encourages all Australians to not wait until International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women (White Ribbon Day) in November to be active, engage on this issue and take action—

Debate resumed.

Debate adjourned, and the resumption of the debate made an order of the day for the next sitting.

6 TAX SYSTEM

Mr van Manen, pursuant to notice, moved—That this House:

- (1) recognises:
 - (a) the positive effect of the Government's measures to assist more hard working Australians to earn more through the tax system, in particular by introducing to Parliament legislation to provide tax relief that encourages and rewards working Australians; and
 - (b) the Government's measures to deliver a stronger economy through tax relief for businesses so that they have the opportunity to invest more, hire more people and pay higher wages; and
- (2) notes with deep concern that the Opposition:
 - (a) sought to reverse $70 billion in tax relief for working Australians;
 - (b) refuses to rule out reversing the tax relief already legislated for small and medium businesses with up to $50 million turnover; and
 - (c) plans to tax Australians and the economy with more than $290 billion of higher taxes.

Debate ensued.

The time allotted for private Members' business having expired, the debate was interrupted, and the resumption of the debate made an order of the day for the next sitting.
